Proceedings: [In Chambers] Order re: Statement of Costs and Expenses [25]

On April 27, 2016, the Court issued an Order (“Contempt Order”) adjudicating Respondent Car Consultants, Inc. in civil contempt for its failure to comply with this Court’s July 17, 2015 Order to obey Applicant National Labor Relation Board’s subpoena duces tecum. (Dkt. No. 24.) The Contempt Order also provided that Applicant was entitled to recover its costs and attorney fees expended to secure Respondent’s compliance. (Dkt. No. 24, at 8.) The Court directed Applicant to set forth its costs and expenses in a separate filing within fourteen (14) days of the Contempt Order’s entry. (Dkt. No. 24, at 8.)

Pursuant to the Contempt Order, Applicant has filed its Statement of Costs and Expenses, which the Court finds to be fair and reasonable given the labor and skill required. (Dkt. No. 25.) Accordingly, Respondent is ORDERED to remit directly to Applicant $6,308 according to the following terms¹: Respondent may pay the entire sum of $6,308 no later than sixty (60) days after this order is entered; alternatively, Respondent may pay a first installment of $3,154 thirty (30) days after the order is entered and a second installment of $3,154 sixty (60) days after the order is entered. If Respondent is unable to meet either payment schedule described herein, Respondent must file, within fourteen (14) days of this Order's entry, a Statement of Inability to Pay setting forth in detail the reasons why relief should be granted and proposing an alternate payment schedule.

If Respondent fails to comply with the terms of this Order, Applicant may move the Court to impose additional sanctions. Applicant shall file a Notice of Compliance when Respondent has fully remitted payment as directed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
